Open Data and sensitive interviews

Reflecting on ethics, consent, and reproducibility

Ben Jarman

ABSTRACT Slides and reference list reflecting on the Open Research, Open Data and Open Access agendas; describing ethical and methodological issues raised by these when applied to qualitative data; and identifying how these concerns may be particularly relevant when considering qualitative data gathered through studies of prison(er)s.

Keywords: data sharing, research ethics, open research, qualitative research, prison research, confidentiality
